IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE

SECOND APPEAL ST.NO.26945 OF 1994

Office notes, office memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders.	Court's or Judge's orders.

CORAM : ABHAY S.OKA, J.
DATED : 16th August, 2004.

P.C.:

1. Heard learned Counsel for the Appellants. The Appellate Court after considering the admission given by the Appellant No.1 has found that the deceased Chandrakant, husband of the Respondent, was having an independent cycle shop prior to the year 1969. The suit property has been purchased in the name of Chandrakant in the year 1969. Considering the fact that it was an admitted position that Chandrakant had his own income, the Appellate Court accepted the case of the Respondent that the suit property was purchased by Chandrakant.

2. The findings recorded by the Appellate Court are on the basis of the evidence on record. There is neither any perversity nor any illegality in the said finding. No substantial question of law arises. The Second Appeal is dismissed with no order as to costs.

Judge.
